SIR,

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that in British India and in many other countries it is usual in addressing members of Legislative bodies to prefix some distinctive appellation to their names. In British India and in the United Kingdom, the term used is "The Honorable". I beg to suggest that the practice of using such a term may be conveniently introduced in Mysore. It may be some Sanskrit or Kanarese word like "Mányarádа" or "Mahámányarádа". I have no doubt such a practice would be very acceptable to the Non-Officials members of the Mysore Legislative Council, most of whom out of public spirit and without any pecuniary consideration, devote an appreciable portion of their time and energy to the work of the Council.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. S. Chakravarti
